FAT FEES OF RURAL JUDGES.

A Case in Which There Were Nineteen Counts on a Single Charge.

HOW THE JUDICIAL JOKER IS JUGGLED.

Supervisor Watson Talks Further on the Subject Concerning the Attempt to Saddle County Taxes on the City-A Table Showing the Amounts That Have Been Drawn by Judges and Constables.

"It is a fact," said Supervisor Watson yester-"that the annual fees of a suburban Dogberry in Kings County are as large as the salary of a Judge of the Supreme Court, and that the emoluments of a village constable are greater than those of a head waiter at a seaside resort. Not only is it true that a prisoner has been tried ten or twelve times in one day by a Justice in New Lots, who charged a fee for each trial, but there is now actually on file in the office of the Board of Supervisors a bill of a New Lots Justice for trying a man nineteen times in one day. Just think of 't! And Supervisor John A. Quintard, who was elected as a reform Supervisor-at-Large, approved the bill.

"The country constables were so eager to earn fees that they went around at night with hooks, like rag-pickers, and dragged tramps out from under wagons, and took them to court in order to charge the county for arresting think his friends raised money to pay back the change he had embezzled, and he was nover imprisoned.

Augustus Taylor, who was ten years a constable in New Lots, resigned his official honors a year ago. Remarkable as it may seem, he left the office of constable comparatively poor.

C. Vincent Warren, an old resident of the Twenty-sixth Ward, was two years clerk of Justice Schiellein's office. He said:

"It's not true that Justice Schiellein ever encouraged the bringing of cases in his court, for I have often seen him turn away cases, and I have myself, a celerk of the court, disensaid people from making trivial complaints. He was popular, and people used to bring cases to his court from other wards of the city. New Lots used to be overrun with prize-tighters, chicken-fighters, target companies and a rough itement from New York and Brooklyn. There were necessarily a gress many cases in Justice Schiellein's court. The number was sometimes so great that I had to work almost day and night. It is true that Justice Schiellein's bill for fees was sometimes $500 for a busy month, for I made out the bills and remember the amount, but it was never larger than that. In Winter his fees were very small.

I remember the case in which there were nineteen separate charges against a prisoner. In that case it was found impossible to do otherwise than make out nineteen sets of papers. The fees charged were legal fees and the Justice was evittled to thim. There was no intention or effort to make money on the case.

Judge Schiellein, who was seen, declined to say anything at present.

Grave end has four Justices. The fees of two of them, Anthony Waring and R. V. B. Newton, and the fees of their two constables, ReCready and Sutherland, for the past fiscal year are given below. The figures are taken from the County Treasurer's office. Waring and Newton both sit at Coney Island.

accepted service and then turned the tables by instructing the bailiff to produce the body of the Jury before the Court. When the twenty-three men comprising the Grand Inque-tap-pared Judge Gartner voluntarily answered all the questions put, but Judge Brevoort assumed a tremendons dignity, and in a voice quivering with anger said: 'This action is an untrecedented outrage, but I am too angry to express myself at this time. When I am cooler I may tell this Jury just what I feel.'

Broke His Leg in the Hunt. A serious accident marred the meet of the Meadow Brook Hunt Club at Long Island Thursday afternoon. There was a large number of people at the meet, and soon after the run commenced a long wait occurred. The fox then appeared followed by one dog only, and as anether hunters nor dogs came up much apprehersion was felt. This was heightened when soon after air James I. Kernochan came around by the Jerusalem Road and announced that Mr. Stauley Mortimer had been thrown from his horse and broken his leg. Mr. Mortimer was carried to his home and the hunt was abandoned. The one dog Hamred caught the fox and was severely bitten in the leg.
